RE: Cause No. 2003-67714; Daniel Gawlikowski and Brandi Gawlikowski

Dear Mr. Gawlikowski:

Your letter/request was received by me on February 22, 2010. As a District Judge, I am charged by the Constitution and laws of Texas to follow and apply our laws. Our laws prohibit me as a judge from initiating, engaging in, and considering any form of communication with anyone regarding any facts in a case before the court other than through proper procedures.

Your letter constitutes an improper ex parte communication with the court and, pursuant to Judicial Ethics Opinion #154, you are informed that I will not and cannot take any action whatsoever in response to your letter. Opinion #154 also requires me to inform all opposing counsel and pro se litigants of your letter and, if requested, to provide them a copy.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Crane Hellums
