Subject: Fw: Subpoena - Judge Hellums

Umm, Wally? Would you please inform your client that he is not a person authorized to issue a subpoena under TRCP 176.4? Unless I missed something and he has recently become (1) the clerk of the court; (2) an attorney authorized to practice in the state of Texas; or (3) an officer authorized to take depositions in Texas, his subpoena is fatally defective. Please ask him to kindly withdraw it or I will seek my fees for filing a totally unnecessary motion to quash. (Not to mention that I'm not so sure that you can subpoena a sitting judge any more than you can sue one...but let's get over the procedural issues first) If that subpoena is going to be issued in this case, you're going to have to be the one who issues it. Thanks and have a good weekend, everybody.

Regards,
Mary-Olga

Subject: Subpoena - Judge Hellums

Counsel,

In accordance with the Rules of the Civil Procedure, I'm providing notice of a subpoena that was filed today and is being served on Judge Bonnie Hellums. A copy of this subpoena is also being provided to the Director of the Office of Court Administration, Carl Reynolds

Mrs. Sipes, since there is a Motion to Disqualify or Recuse Judge Hellums pending, I wanted to copy you as well as this may be something that Judge Underwood would think is important and would want to be made aware.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please don't hesitate to contact me....

Thanks,
