Wally. Who will be in charge? I welcome you to be the attorney and man you used to be and get him under control. Read the stream of emails---totally unwarranted.

Subject: RE: Brisa's leg

Wendy,

Applause.... that was a beautiful speech and your comments were very sweet, but not true... What happened to Brisa's leg was an accident and I'm very thankful

that we have a pediatrician in our neighborhood that was able to provide care for Brisa.. Actually, I don't quite think I can put into words how bad it makes a parent feel when their little girl has her pants pulled down by a man and that man puts his hands her bare bottom... I have a real big problem with that, but for some reason the Amicus Attorney doesn't.... I wonder if there are any bad things one can say about any members of your family... The scar that Brisa will have on her leg will be nothing compared to the scar Brisa already has from the way that she was inappropriately disciplined by Steven...

You're wrong Wendy - I understand YOUR craft very well. You're a liar and a corrupt attorney who uses corrupt judges to rule in your favor to cover for your lies. Its as simple as that... You and Judge Hellums did everything you could to cover what you both did, even by deleting emails and destroying evidence...

I believe that good does prevail and that is why we found out the truth about you and Judge Hellums...

You quickly bring up the drug use of my sister... However, why is it that you fail to recognize or mention the years of cocaine abuse by Brandi? The answer

"lies" within how you conduct business in YOUR craft - by using lies and corruption.

Quick question - how do you get Wendy Burgower to cease communicating? You start bringing up her lies.... This is quite comical - lets see if it still works...

Here are some perfect examples that we'll be presenting to the jury...

(1) Mr Gawlikowski - what do you think was so IMMEDIATE about the email you sent to the Amicus on October 21, 2009 about her lying to Brisa's school principal that made it necessary for the Amicus to forward the email to the Judge the very next day and then go to the courtroom to get the Judge to sign an Order?

(2) Mr Gawlikowski - why do you think the Amicus needed to go see Judge Hellums in her courtroom on October 22, 2009 to get her to sign the order?

(3) Mr Gawlikowski - how do you think that the Amicus was able to get Judge Hellums to sign an order so quickly that morning?

(4) Mr Gawlikowski - did Wendy Burgower state in her motion to quash that it was IMPERATIVE and in Brisa's BEST INTERESTS that Judge Hellums sign the order on October 22, 2009?

(5) Mr Gawlikowski - why was it IMPERATIVE and what was it about the order that was in Brisa's BEST INTERESTS?

(6) Mr Gawlikowski - if the injunction was valid and in force like the Amicus communicated to Stefanie Roach on October 21, 2009, why would it be IMPERATIVE and there be an IMMEDIATE to have Judge Hellums sign an order containing an extension of the injunction if it was, as Miss Burgower stated to Stefanie Roach, already valid and in force?

(7) Mr Gawlikowski - was Wendy Burgower successful in getting the judge to sign an order as a result of her improper behavior?

(8) Mr Gawlikowski - did Wendy Burgower violate the Texas Rules of Civil

Procedure and the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct with her action related to communicating with the Judge improperly to get the Judge to sign the order on October 22, 2009?

We can go on and on and on and we will, but we'll save the rest for trial...

Isn't this going to be fun?!

Dan. I know how difficult every day is for you. Parents DO feel bad when their children get hurt on their watch. I know brisas injury was an accident. I hope she continues to heal. As for you ongoing personal attacks on me, I will ignore them. You have no understanding of my craft. I realize you get through life cheating and breaking rules. Now that I have learned about your horrible upbringing with a criminal for a father and drug use pervasive in you family am more tolerant. You HAD no choices in life and your constant mistrust is your burden. I will continue to ignore your unnecessary remarks and give brisa my best efforts. Enjoy your weekend

Wendy,

I assume you want to be kept posted so you can send more ex parte emails to your

good buddy Judge Hellums so she can continue to do good favors for you....

It must ne nice when you have the Judge in your back pocket - no wonder you do so well in her court...

Is this the same leg that was injured a few weeks ago? That was a pretty deep cut. Keep me posted

Subject: Brisa's leg

Brisa is complaining about her right thigh hurting. She is walking in a way to relieve pressure from her leg. This started on Tuesday when she was walking at Big Little School. Dr. Brack sent her for x rays last night and we should hear results this morning.
