Subject: RE: Brisa's Healthcare Coverage

Mol, thanks for your quick responses. I would like to PLEASE make the request to not make this an ugly exchange. I know you're saying that an additional card is not an option through Brandi's new carrier. May I please have the name of the insurance carrier so that I can call to confirm that an additional card for the parent of a covered dependent is not available for an additional cost?

Redirect - You and I both know that any comments that were made regarding Brandi's use of controlled substance and sexual relationship with a married man were not slanderous. Every word can be substantiated with documentation (her deposition) as well as testimony from participants that were involved - the truth being the ultimate defense to slander. Unfortunately, this is an example of how the truth can sometimes hurt. Please get your story straight, the signs were never displayed except to Brandi and Steven in the parking lot of my apartment complex. I hope that whoever Brandi is claiming saw me driving around the city with signs on my car have pictures of my car with the signs somewhere else other than my apartment complex. I guarantee you there are none because it didn't happen.

So Brisa told you that I moved to a new residence? Hmmm...just so I understand, Brisa told you and/or Brandi that I moved to a new home? Were those Brisa's exact words or just an interpretation of something else she said?

Thanks.....

The answers to your questions are: (1) not an option; (2) not obligated to disclose, and will not do so because of slanderous statements made by you (and displayed on specially-made vehicle signage by you) regarding Brandi's former employer; and (3) Brisa.

REFERRING TO GETTING AN ADDITIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE CARD FOR BRISA

Mol, my understanding from the insurance carrier that we use (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) is that an additional card may be ordered for a cost if it's for a family member or parent of a dependent. According to the Decree, Brandi and I are joint managing conservators for Brisa who is listed as a dependent on her insurance. I will pay the cost for the additional card to avoid having to use a folded up piece of paper with barely legible information on it. Does that option exist or are you and Brandi saying that there is not an option of obtaining an additional card for a family member or parent of dependent that is covered through Brandi's new insurance carrier for an additional cost?

Regarding the information about Brandi's employment, is it your understanding according to the decree that Brandi is in no way obligated to disclose any information regarding her new employer to me?

Also, would it be possible to understand who provided Brandi or yourself with the knowledge that I had moved to a new residence?

Thanks,
